CLETO SAPORETTI

*Prisoner of War, Poultry Farmer
Founder of High Rustenberg Hydro Philanthropist*

By Dr Geraldine Mitton.

This is the story of a remarkable man, born in Ravenna
In 1905, captured during WW 2 in Eritrea, interned at Zonderwater camp, released as parolee on a poultry farm.

He rose to become the largest integrated poultry farmer in SA until Newcastle disease struck.

Undeterred, it was his dream to promote health to the people of South Africa.

This story follows the history of the Hydro from early beginnings to achievement of international fame.
